

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

February 5, 2009

Dear Life Group Hosts,

You'll find your weekly materials attached to this email. I hope you'll take time to read the coaching tip this week. It's actually the first of a 3-part topic I'm going to be sending you on how to deal with difficult people and situations in a small group setting. Whether you're doing our message-based studies or something else, it's very helpful information with tips for any group. I've also asked Pam Boysen to contact you over the next few weeks to find out how many of you are still meeting, on what days you're meeting, and the topics you're studying. We continue to have newcomers ask about joining small groups, and this will help us to guide them. By the way, if you haven't had anybody new join your group for awhile, why not? That's the best way to inject new life into your group, so that you don't stagnate in your discussion or outreach. Again, we can help you find a new member in need of fellowship, as well as a study that meets your need. All you have to do is let us know, and we'll be there for you.

God bless you! We're praying for you!

Pastor Gary